

Ms Laurence Aïda AMMOUR

Freelance consultant in international security and defence issues

Associate researcher to the Institute of Political Science, Bordeaux (France)

Member of the French National Defence Studies Association (AQUI-IHEDN)

Former researcher at the Institut Français des Études Anatoliennes, Istanbul (Turkey)

Former member of the Research Division at the NATO Defence College, Rome (Italy)

Area of expertise:

North Africa, Sahel, Turkey

laurence.ammour@gmail.com

Expert in International Security and Defense, Ms Ammour worked for eight years in the Research Division at the NATO Defense College (Rome) as Publications Manager and was involved in the NATO Mediterranean Dialogue annual seminars, and the Frozen Conflicts elective as well. As a researcher and director of the Istanbul Urban Observatory at the Institut Français des Études Anatoliennes in Istanbul (Turkey) for five years, she conducted research and urban sociology field surveys in Istanbul. L.A. Ammour taught Sociology at the École Normale Supérieure and at the Université de Nouakchott (Mauritania) and was an associate member of the working group on "Alterité" (Otherness) at the Laboratoire of Anthropology-Urbama, Université de Tours.

As founder-manager of the Istanbul Urban Observatory, Ms Ammour took part in scientific exchange programmes with French and national institutes in Damascus, Beirut, Amman, Cairo, Tehran, Rabat and Tunis. She carried out field studies in Mauritania and Turkey, and on Algerian immigration in France.

As a consultant, Laurence A. Ammour collaborated with the French Defence Procurement Agency, DGA (Délégation Générale pour l'Armement), and conducted studies for the CHEAr (Centre des Hautes Études de l'Armement) on the contribution of sociological studies on cultural awareness for crisis resolution in urban operational areas.

Presently, Laurence A. Ammour works on the Turkish-Israeli Partnership in the frame of the new Turkish diplomacy in the Middle East for the Institute of Political Science, Bordeaux, and continues her works on international security issues for Géopolisudconsultance (France).

She speaks French, English, Italian, Turkish, Spanish and Arabic.